

Let's Celebrate! - Autumn 2

Knowledge Organiser - Mrs Wootton

By the end of this half term:

- I can talk about the places that celebrations might be held, such as, churches, mosques, clubs, parks, etc.
- I can name different celebrations.
- I know that bonfire night is a British celebrations that takes place on November 5th.
- I can talk about some of the ways that people celebrate bonfire night.
- I know that Diwali is the festival of light.
- I know that Hindus and Sikhs celebrate Diwali.
- I know that Christmas is celebrated on 25th December by Christians all around the world.
- I can talk about some of the ways that people celebrate Christmas.

Key vocabulary

Celebrations, family, friends, birthday, wedding, party, Christmas, Easter, Diwali, Eid, New Year, why, how, where, when, what

Aims of the focus theme for learning:

For children to share their knowledge and experiences of different festivals, purposes for celebrations and where they might take place.

How you can help your child at home:

- Talk about the different celebrations in your family.
- Share photos of different celebrations.
- Don't forget to share your child's learning with us on tapestry.

Books we will read this half term

The stories we read in class during this half term will help to support our learning around 'In The Garden'.

The books below (plus many more) will be used to support learning throughout this half term.

